

Kathleen Henderson,

Senior Director, Operations, Environment and Regulatory Affairs, Canadian Airport Council (CAC)

Kathleen Henderson graduated from University of North Dakota's Aeronautical Studies program in 1992, and has over 30 years of experience in airport and airline operations. Kathleen joined the Canadian Airport Council (CAC) from Iqaluit International Airport, where she managed four years of construction and development under the first P3 (public private partnership) for airports in Canada.