

Neil Sweeney Biography

Neil Sweeney, Vice President Corporate Affairs, De Havilland Aircraft of Canada

Neil Sweeney is the Vice President of Corporate Affairs for De Havilland Aircraft of Canada, where he is accountable for the Government Relations and Communications activities of the company.

Neil has spent his career in both the private and public sectors. In the private sector, he most recently held the roles of Vice President of Stakeholder Relations for TC Energy in Calgary and Vice President of Stakeholder Relations for Coastal GasLink, in addition to previously holding the role of Vice President of Corporate Affairs for the Labatt Brewing Company.

In the public sector, Neil previously held the roles of Deputy Minister of Intergovernmental Relations, Corporate Policy and Planning and Government Communications in the BC Government under Premier Christy Clark as well as served as Deputy Chief of Staff to Premier Gordon Campbell. Neil also served as Legislative Assistance to Finance Minister Paul Martin in the Canadian Department of Finance.

Neil is married to Tanis and they have three children. In his spare time, Neil likes to run, golf and catch the occasional fish.