

SHORT BIO- Richard Morris, Director Government Programs, Airbus Helicopters Canada

In August of 2024 Richard Morris joined Airbus Helicopters Canada as the Director Government Programs. In this role he is responsible for business development for federal government programs associated with the Canadian Armed Forces, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the Canadian Coast Guard. He is a former RCAF tactical helicopter pilot with operational experience in both conventional and special operations as well as staff experience in developing military helicopter requirements.