

Tracy Medve

CEO, KF Capital Ltd. (KF Aerospace)

Since she began her career in aviation in 1985, Tracy Medve has held various senior airline management positions, including at Norcanair, Time Air, Canadian Partner and Canadian Regional Airlines. Tracy was the co-founder of C.T. AeroProjects, a Calgary-based consultancy focused on air transport resource management. There, she worked with a wide range of public and private aviation clients worldwide. From 2007 to 2012, she was the President of Canadian North Airlines.

In 2013, Tracy was appointed President of KF Aerospace. In 2021 she became President and CEO of KF Capital Ltd (the parent company of the KF Group of Companies). As of 2025, she retains the role of CEO of KF Capital Ltd., overseeing the broader group of KF businesses and divisions under the KF Capital umbrella.

Tracy is the Past Chair of the Air Transportation Association of Canada (ATAC) and the first woman in Canada to be inducted as an Honorary Life Member. She previously sat as a Director of the Canadian Association of Defence and Security Industries (CADSI) and was a member of the University of British Columbia, Okanagan External Advisory Board. Since 2003 she has served as a part-time member of the Transportation Appeal Tribunal of Canada (TATC). Tracy is the past Chair of the Fortis BC Board of Directors and the current Board Chair of SkyAlyne – a partnership with CAE, Inc. managing Canada's Future Aircrew Training (FAcT) Program for the Royal Canadian Air Force (RCAF).

Tracy is a lawyer by training (University of Saskatchewan, 1982) and a graduate of the John Molson School of Business Global Aviation MBA program at Concordia University (2009). She is the 2007 recipient of the John Molson School of Business MBA Scholarship. She was inducted as a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma honour society in 2009. In 2022 she was the recipient of the James C. Floyd award for her contribution to aviation. In 2025, Tracy was inducted into the Canadian Aviation Hall of Fame.

AEROSPACE

5655 AIRPORT WAY
KELOWNA, BC
CANADA V1V 1S1
P: 250.491.5500

Tracy also served in the Canadian Armed Forces Reserves as a Signals Officer from 1975 to 1981. She has two sons and enjoys golfing, cycling and learning to play the piano in her spare time.